History LEARNING JOURNEY

Year 12 → Understanding and Applying History Skills → Year 13

- Understanding historiography
- Understanding essay structure
- Developing analytical skills
- Building knowledge of historiography
- Applying historiography to essays
- Using primary sources
- Understanding and using key vocabulary
- Assessing the value of sources
- Developing evaluative comment

Final A level exams

Examinations

Revision

Revision

- Social impacts of Marys economic and religious changes.
- Elizabeth I, character and aims.
- The impact of the religious settlement in early Elizabethan England.
- Foreign relations under the early Elizabethan government.
- Elizabeth's court and the problems of a puritan parliament.
- Issues of royal authority- did rebellions cause any real threats?
- Economy and religion in later Elizabethan England.
- Growth of trade and exploration under Elizabeth.
- Elizabeth's later years and her weakening authority.
- England's relations with foreign powers under Mary.
- Maintaining royal authority in Mary's court.
- Economic policies of autarky.
- Impact of Nazism on women, youth and religion.
- Volksgemeinschaft in the Nazi state.
- Racial ideology and the targeting of undesirables.
- Increasing anti-Semitic persecution.
- Reasons for start of World War Two and its impacts on migration.
- Albert Speer and total war.
- The move towards and introduction of the final solution.
- Assassination attempts on Hitler and the ending of World War Two.
- Lady Jane Grey and Mary's succession.
- Use and effectiveness of propaganda in the Nazi state.
- The imposing of totalitarianism and the use of terror.
- Hitler's consolidation of power in 1933.

YEAR 13

Internal examinations and Revision

- Social and economic impacts of the religious changes under Edward.
- Social and economic impacts of the religious changes under Edward.
- Somerset's failure in foreign policy.
- The problem of maintain royal authority in a protectorate.
- Edward VI and the problems of succession.
- Overview of Germany by March 1933.
- Religion in society and the growth of humanism.
- Henry VIII character and aims.
- Factionalism of Henry's court and the accession of Wolsey.
- The establishment of Royal supremacy and rise of Cromwell.
- Henry VIII's relations with Foreign powers.
- Societies upheaval from religious reform.
- Henry's treatment of rebellion.
- The development of overseas trade and commerce.
- Renaissance and religious reform under Henry VIII.
- The enabling Act and the end of Democracy.
- Economic development of the Tudor state under Henry VII.
- Stresemann's attempts to fix the economic issues.
- Development of society in the mid years of Weimar.
- How was extremism growing in Weimar?
- Stresemann's attempts to restore Germany as an international power.
- Political, economic and social impacts of the Depression.
- Reasons for the rise of support for fascism and communism.
- Hitler's election as Chancellor and attempts to limit his power.
- The Reichstag fire and Hitler's moves to secure more power.
- The changing structure of society under Henry VII.
- Overview of the republic by 1924.
- Failing political stability and rise of extremism.
- Social and economic impacts of hyperinflation.
- Economic aftermath of World War One
- Impacts of the Treaty of Versailles.
- Strengths and weaknesses of the Weimar constitution.
- Germany in 1918 and the impacts of World War One.

YEAR 12

- How Henry used marriages to secure England's position in Europe.
- Henry's relations with foreign powers.
- Henry's reforms to central government.
- How Henry dealt with rebellions early in his rule.
- Establishing the early Tudor dynasty.
- Society in 1485.