

A range of university courses, careers and apprenticeships related to Animal Management including veterinary nursing, work with animals in animal welfare centres, catteries and kennels, animal grooming and retail.

BTEC National Extended Certificate in Animal Management: Learning Journey

Unit 3 Animal Welfare & Ethics

This unit is assessed through a exam board set task You will be given information relating to a specific animal industry context in order to carry out research. You will then complete the set task with a number of activities based around animal welfare and ethics.

Jan / Feb

RSPCA

You will explore normal and abnormal behaviours in a range of animals and how these behaviours develop. You will observe, record and interpret animal behaviour

Unit 5 Animal Behaviour

Autumn Term

Year 13

Unit 7 Work Experience in the Animal Sector

You will study roles available in the animal sector and the progression routes required to attain them. You will develop communication and employability skills through study and work experience.

May ½ Term

You will study common indicators of animal health, diseases and disorders as well as treatments and prevention methods in order to detect and protect animals from illness

Unit 6 Animal Health & Diseases

Summer

Feb ½ Term

Unit 4 Practical Animal Husbandry

You will explore the skills needed to manage high standards of health and welfare for a variety of animals by meeting their essential needs

Year 12

Course Introduction
Unit Outlines, Programme Delivery and Deadlines.
Location of resources and Microsoft Teams

